

RONALD K. STAIR, PhD, NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF HOPE FOR YOUTH

Ronald K. Stair, PhD, MLT, EA, and Principle of the employee benefits firm Creative Plan Designs, Ltd., has been named Vice President of the Board for Hope for Youth.

Amityville, NY July 3, 200) – Hope for Youth is an Amityville-based child welfare agency servicing Nassau and Suffolk County families in crisis. Founded in 1969, HFY provides various types of family group homes and foster care homes to hundreds of children annually. It is one of only two New York State organizations providing a Family Ties program, in which large sibling groups removed from their biological home remain together in one Hope for Youth Home.

Dr. Stair has been a member of the Hope for Youth board for seventeen years. Often sought out by newspapers and magazines as an expert in his field, Dr. Stair is a member of the National Institute of Pension Administrators, the Conference of Consulting Actuaries and the American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries (ASPPA), where for fourteen years he served on the Education and Examination Committee.

A frequent local and national speaker on topics relative to retirement plans and other employee benefit programs, Dr. Stair has testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee on the pension industry. Since 1992, he's served as a judge for the Charles Duggan Long Island Science and Engineering Fair (which is part of the Intel International Science and Engineering Fair) and for several years he was active with the Girls Scouts as a Troop leader.
